

new secure WEBSITE

NCCPL has launched its new secure website. This website is developed in an object oriented paradigm. It follows W3C international web standards for website architecture, design and development. The layout of the NCCPL website has not been changed as it already fulfills the business requirements of NCCPL.

The salient security features of the new secure website are as follows:

- ♦ Controls have been placed in the new website to prevent SQL Injections, Cross Site Scripting, Directory Traversing, File Inclusions, URL Redirection, Buffer Overflows, Cookie Manipulation and Code Injections etc.
- ♦ There is a separate module for the Content Management and Data Upload on the website. This administrative module is not visible to any external users.
- ♦ Proper password controls have been implemented.

In addition to the above, the Web Hosting arrangement has also been changed from shared server to a dedicated server. The website is hosted in a SAS 70 compliant data center in US with all the infrastructure level controls and redundancies in place.

The salient features of Web hosting arrangement are:

- ♦ Dedicated server with redundant hardware components.
- ♦ OS level Firewall
- ♦ Port Level and User Level security (Only restricted access as per website design)
- ♦ Antivirus, Antispam and Antimalware updates
- ♦ Juniper Firewall (Network level)
- ♦ Intrusion Detection and Prevention System (IDS/IPS)
- ♦ Daily server backup of all folders and files with 6 months retention period
- ♦ 24 * 7 support
- ♦ Log, retention for last 6 months
- ♦ 99.9% up-time requirement with redundant equipment and power backup

A third party penetration testing and vulnerability assessment exercise has been conducted in order to evaluate the security measures of new web hosting arrangements and identify code vulnerabilities (if any). The exercise has been successfully completed and the website has been launched after resolving all observed highlights during penetration test Iftikhar Ahmed

New Features of NCSS

A. Trading by Employees of Brokerage Houses

In order to facilitate Stock Exchanges to comply with their relevant regulations, necessary development has been made in National Clearing and Settlement System (NCSS) whereby, the Unique Identification Number (UIN) of an individual marked as "EMPLOYEE" by a brokerage house will be blocked in NCSS for re-registration as a client from any other brokerage house of the three Stock Exchanges.

B. Clearing, Settlement & Risk Management of Provisionally Listed Companies

NCCPL has enhanced the scope of NCSS so as to provide clearing and settlement services for the trades executed in the Provisionally Listed Companies Market. Institutional Delivery System (IDS) facility, coupled with its risk management, has also been made available for non-broker clearing members for direct settlement of their trades executed through brokers in such market.

C. Clearing, Settlement & Risk Management of National Saving Bonds

NCCPL has also enhanced the scope of NCSS so as to provide clearing and settlement services for the newly introduced National Saving Bonds (NSB) as a listed security in the Debt Market. Moreover, NCCPL shall also manage the entire risk management of NSB as well.

Bidding Farewell!

Mr. Zafar Moti who served the NCCPL Board as a director, was presented with a plaque by the then Chairman Mr. Khalid Sherwani during the 74th Board Meeting, in recognition of his services. NCCPL is honoured to have had Mr. Moti on the Board of Directors.

CRICKET MANIA!

Congratulations IT! - Winners of the Inter Department Cricket Tournament played on Feb 19, 2010. The event was an entertaining one, thoroughly enjoyed by all participants and spectators. All the matches were exciting and challenging and one did not know what would happen till the last ball was delivered. The cricket matches will now be held once each quarter. Kashif Ghulam Hussain.

WisenUP!

"All growth depends upon activity. There is no development physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work."

-- Calvin Coolidge, 30th U.S. president

"When you dare to dream, dare to follow that dream; dare to suffer through the pain, sacrifice, self-doubts and friction from the world."

-- Laura Schlessinger, talk-show host

"I would never have amounted to anything were it not for adversity. I was forced to come up the hard way."

Penney, businessman

Your wish is my command!

Employee Suggestion Boxes have been placed at the Dadex Office near the public PC and at the KSE office near the entrance for employees to give their valued suggestions and comments ... Together we can work for a better office environment.

PRESENTATION AT KSE!

A Market Awareness workshop was conducted individually for market participants and "KSE Brokers & Senior Staff Members." Another session explaining the system functionalities of NCCPL was conducted to benefit market participants.

CAREER FAIR!

NCCPL participated in Bahria University's "Careers 2010" where more than 500 students visited the stalls set up by various companies. Students from various fields including Finance, IT and Marketing etc expressed a lot of interest in the NCCPL stall and submitted their resumes. Other companies participating in the Job Fair were MCB, Inbox, TRG, Mobilink, and The British Council etc.

PERSONAL VICTORY

The Human Resource Department of NCCPL recently organized a competition on 'Personal Victory' based on Stephen Coveys's book 'The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People'. Earlier, several teach-back style discussion groups had been held to discuss the first three habits of Personal Victory namely - 'Being Proactive', 'Begin With The End In Mind' and 'First Things First' (Time Management). Every participant presented a small topic to his or her group. Selected participants from the discussion groups took part in the final competition where they gave a presentation on a selected habit. The competition was judged by Arshi Aziz, a trainer and coach of ICT.

The winners of the competition were:

First Prize - Rehan Saif of Operations department

Second Prize - Muhammad Abdul Razzak of IT department

Third Prize - Aisha Jalali of Operations department

First Prize
Rehan Saif

"I'm lucky to have participated in this exclusive event; whilst preparing the speech I discovered ways of enhancing my personal effectiveness."

Third Prize
Aisha Jalali

"This event provided an opportunity for people from diverse backgrounds to come together to develop better intrapersonal skills and broaden their perspective."

Second Prize
Muhammad Abdul Razaq

"Such activities help in team building and at the same time enhance presentation and communication skills. They bring about a good change in the office environment."
